

the jax fish house charitable mollusk proudly presents...
THE 11th ANNUAL
OYSTER EATING CONTEST
celebrate oyster week at jax boulder!

WHEN?: Sunday, March 15 2009, 2pm at Jax Boulder

WHY?: to help celebrate the love of the oyster, earn bragging rights for the year, win fabulous prizes AND help out a great cause - all proceeds go directly to EFAA.

the RULES: eat as many oysters as possible in a 90 second time period. The contestants receive a tray filled with 75 pre-shucked oysters on the half shell. If the contestant consumes all the oysters on the tray, supplemental dozens are given to the contestant. Each contestant has an individual judge to ensure that the oysters are swallowed. The judges are responsible for counting the oyster shells to determine the number of oysters eaten. Contestants are allowed to "flavor or dress" each oyster before the competition begins, but are not allowed to move the oyster out of their shell prior to the start of the competition. For an oyster to be counted in the final total, it must be in the contestant's mouth at the end of the time limit (i.e. not in the contestant's hands). The competition contains 2 heats. The contestant that consumes the most oysters at the end of the 2 rounds will be declared the champion.

All contestants are required to pledge a minimum of $250.00.

THE TOTAL AMOUNT OF PLEDGES EARNED MUST BE TURNED OVER TO JAX BEFORE THE COMPETITION BEGINS.

the TECHNIQUE: in the past, we have seen the oysters dumped in a pint glass and guzzled, oyster individually slurped from the shell and a hands-on grabbing oyster and throwing them in the mouth technique. All is fair in love and oyster contests as long as the slimy little guys end up in your mouth and swallowed within the time limit.

the PRIZE: 3 day / 2 night trip to Las Vegas!!!

the RECORD: The Jax Boulder record is 113 oysters in 90 seconds in March 2005 by the one & only Ang McDonald.

The Jax Denver record is 100 oysters in 90 seconds, set in March 2005 by Denver's Oyster Champion, Steve "Guido" Orth.
